VOLUNTEER SERVICES

❖ Purpose

The library encourages volunteerism as one way to involve members of the community in the activities of the library. Our volunteer program enhances library service by supplementing library staff with volunteer staff. Volunteers improve library service, provide community involvement and give support for the library.

❖ Benefits as a volunteer

Some volunteers want opportunities for personal growth, resume-building opportunities, community service hours for school, new social contacts or an opportunity to contribute to their community. No matter what your motivation is for joining us, we're happy that you are willing to help! The time that you give as a volunteer is valued by all of the library staff. We hope you will gain a sense of purpose, accomplishment and self-worth and pride in a job well done.

❖ Benefits to the Library

Volunteers help the library to enhance its level of service, improve community relationships and get new and fresh ideas.

❖ Opportunities for volunteers

A variety of tasks for people with all types of skills and interest are generally available.

Please prioritize your areas of interest, 1,2,3, etc.
